

When & Where
October 10, 2009
Rush Creek Bible Church
76th and Byron Center
Byron Center, MI

Church Name _____

City _____

Contact Person _____

Email address _____

Daytime Phone _____

What will it cost?

Number of individual's _____ X $30.00

Married couples _____ X $40.00

Pastor _____ X Free

This includes lunch

Total Enclosed $ _____

Please make checks payable to: Awana

Mail to: Bob Pycraft
1765 Pineknoll
Kentwood, MI 49508

Questions? Call or e-mail

Phone: 616-827-9137

E-Mail: Bobp@awana.org

New Web: www.michiganawanaclubs.org

General Info

- Register through your commander
- Coffee/doughnuts available during registration
- No refunds, however substitutions may be made if someone cannot attend

Grand Rapids and West Michigan Awana Ministry Conference

This Conference is sponsored by the Michigan Awana Missionaries Bob & Bette Pycraft. Come and celebrate with us as we have hit a miles stone in our ministry, 25 years of service as Awana Missionary. We are serious about training and we will offer qualified Commanders a scholarship to Commander College. We will show you tools to help train your leaders. We would like to help you focus on improving ministry in your church.

This year our Theme is: Proclaim...They are ready to hear...Are you ready to share? Come and be encouraged. Come and be an encouragement to someone else.

Conference Schedule

Note: We start right off with a session in the gym! Remember to bring your Bible to conference

8:30 – Registration and snacks

9:00 – Conference starts with a

Group Session-gym

Noon – Lunch provided

3:30 Conference ends

What you can expect...

- Basic Training will be offered for those who need to complete it
- Ideas to help improve your club
- Fun- Awana is supposed to be fun, why not training?
- Interactive- You won't just be listening. You can participate
- Fellowship lunch to feed your physical body
- Special Adopt-a-club report to update and challenge you
- What's New? Come and see what resources are new or improved
- Book table will be available so you can take home tools you can use
- This year we will offer workshops for different clubs
- Your attendance will give your Commander an opportunity to earn a scholarship to Commander College!

Some Topics to be covered include:

Sharing the Gospel with clarity and confidence

Ideas to make your club fun and exciting

The importance of children's ministry and protection

Ideas for getting clubbers through their handbooks

Ideas for Large group time

What is your leadership color (personal leadership style) and how to minister with other styles.

How to Raise a Modern Day Joseph-
How are our kids turning out?

